

Daynelis Munoz was born in Cuba where she studied for 8 years Classical Ballet. She graduated from 2005 as a Professional Classical Dancer and Ballet Instructor. Daenelis has been part of professional companies like Cuban National Ballet, Mexico Ballet and Tulsa Ballet. She has danced on stages in Spain, France, Colombia, Mexico, among others. Daynelis has been highlighted of her career as a Principal Dancer and within its main roles are Swan Lake, Giselle, Don Quixote, Nutcracker, Sleeping Beauty, Romeo and Juliet, Infra, Serenade, La Bayader. She has danced pieces of internationally renowned choreographers in the world of art such as John Cranko, Edwaard Liang, Marcello Angelini, George Balanchine, Wayne McGregor, Ma Cong, and Alicia Alonso. Daynelis has participated in different International Ballet Competition in Cuba, Mexico where she won the Gold Medal in Youth America Grand Prix. Daynelis has been a member of jury in Competitions of Dance, International Dance Meeting and Congresses of Spectacles. She is currently a Principal Guest Artist and Ballet Instructor and has been invited to perform in several galas, master classes and ballet productions around the world.